

Search me, O God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts.(Ps 139:23)

There is always a big blessing and a big challenge to stay on the Word and to study His Word. God is wonderful God, and His blessings are as a spring of fresh water. But every blessing comes with a responsibility. If you can call as a blessing the marriage you better treat well your partner, if you call a blessing your job you better give your best at the job. If you call a blessing your children you better treat them as children. The list goes on and on. On whatever circumstances you are, you can start on what you have and count those things as blessings and thank God always you will be able to decrease your complains.

Blessing to serve the Lord

Even in the middle when people ignore you...even when people may discourage, even when there is no hope that anyone will hear you're preaching. Still it is a blessing. During the Last week we have been blessed having to meet people, people that respect us and glad to hear us. We have been in Zharrez meeting some of the students that we have been having contacts there in Zharrez. Also We have been having good time with Klodi, it is one of the contacts that we have in Fier. All this is on building "redemptive relationships".

Wednesday Bible Class

We are coming to the end of the classes of "How to contribute to build one Another in Christ" Last Wednesday we studied "To pray for One Another" As taught the class last time we spent some time in prayer...it was very encouraging because I asked Enis to lead us in a prayer for a specific reason. It was the first time that Enis was leading in prayer that was very touching with very thoughtful words. Praise the Lord.

Worship Service

We are very amazed by the Love Of God when we come and Worship Him, He has love, has patience as it come to our personal relationship with Him.

Edi preached from Psalm 90:12... to remember that the time is short, and that we need to spend this time to share the gospel to all that we know in order to show the real love that comes from above.

Prayer Requests

Please pray for our contacts that we already have, in that our relationship with them will grow on many levels and that we will be able to let them know Christ.

Pray for Ketu our sister here in Fier she lost her job and she is at home right now and struggling on many levels one thing is that she is not coming regularly on worship services and Bible classes pray that she will stay strong on the Lord.

Also Pray for Me & Edi as we are on the field of God to stay focused and strong on Him.

In His Service
